

Centennial Corner

Centennial Corner will be presented by the echo each week in 1974, as part of the celebration of Haliburton County's centenary. The column will include a listing of centennial celebrations in communities throughout the county and interesting information on the history of Haliburton.

WHY 'PROVISIONAL' COUNTY OF HALIBURTON?

When agitation for extension of the Ironstone Bancroft and Ottawa Railway (I.B. & O.) into Haliburton area brought this development to reality, it was necessary to raise money by debenture. This method of financing was not allowed by legislation for unorganized territory, and a special act of Parliament was passed to accommodate the particular circumstances and create this Provisional County of Haliburton - 'Provisional' because there was insufficient development and population to meet the criteria for classification as a county. The railway was constructed to the community of Haliburton and to compensate for this, Minden was made the county seat - where the Registry Office is located.

Haliburton curling teams in Ont. Briar playdowns

For the first time in many years Haliburton Curling Club will be represented in the Ontario Briar Playdowns at Lindsay on Jan. 18.

Bob Collivers rink won the right by winning the District at Fenelon Falls in December.

Another entry was then allowed, so a Club play-off was necessary.

Four rinks played down in a double knock-out contest, namely, Cec. Bailey, Derry Wilford, Joe Iles, Alex Miller.

The Wilford and Miller rinks won through to meet in the final, played Wednesday Jan. 2, with Wilford coming through with a big five end in the twelfth after a close and well-played game.

With Derry was Russ Woodcock, Scotty Larue and Glen Blair. Alex Miller had Ted Gardiner, John Beechli and John Holton on his rink.

Bob Colliver will have with him on his rink Bill Johnson, John Holton and Bill Everson.

The entry list filled up quickly for the big Skyline Mens Spiel to be held Jan. 18/19/20. Thirty-two entries make up the spiel from Oshawa, Richmond Hill, Orillia, Brechin, Lindsay, Tottenham, Bancroft. Haliburton Club will have four rinks competing.

After the Xmas and New Years break league activity got going again with Mixed League on Thursday Jan. 3.

LINDSAY - MPP Glen Hodgson, PC Victoria - Haliburton, feels the past year has been a productive one for the two counties with their continued construction of new homes, improved farms and more cottages.

In the field of education, Mariposa Elementary School was built and an addition built to the Woodville Elementary School. Also phase one of the design and plan of the new campus of Sir Sanford Fleming College became a reality.

In line of recreation he said there were one or possibly two new arenas built and artificial ice planned for another at Cobocok.

Glebe Centennial Park on Head Lake has been developed during the past year and will be opened in 1974. In addition Sir Sam's Ski Lodge at Eagle Lake now has a family hill with a tow and there is a new improved park plan for Minden Township.

The province has provided 3,000 acres of land at Indian Point near Cobocok for future recreation facilities. The Little Britain Community Centre has enlarged its park area, adding a new parking section on the additional land.

There was considerable construction of roads and bridges over the past 12 months, with new bridges now located at Bobcaygeon, south of the town on County Road 24, at Dorset and McGillivray Road in Cardiff Township and another in West Gifford.

Mr. Hodgson said a new piece of road was constructed in the Deep Bay area near Minden, paving of Haliburton County Road 1 from Carnarvon to Van Koughnet for 20 miles, paving of Highway 35 from Carnarvon to Halls Lake and a new intersection added at the junction of Highways 7 and 35, plus one mile of new improved roads from the intersection into Lindsay.

MPP GLEN HODGSON

Victoria County has continued improvement of its roads and he said the ministry of transportation and communication is constructing nine miles of road north to Minden on Highway 35, which will complete a major section of the highway from Lindsay to Huntsville.

The Burnt River to Fenelon Falls road, stretch of pavement for five miles on Highway 121 was constructed and there was an additional contract to the County Road 8 intersection at Highway 121 at the east side of Fenelon Falls.

A maintenance management program was introduced last year in the county roads setup. Costs and control of each job and operation will help make traffic and maintenance comparisons.

There is a sewage plant under joint provincial-municipal arrangement being undertaken in Omeme to be started in the fall; a sewage plant to get under way shortly in Fenelon Falls and a plant site for the sewage system at Haliburton Village to be developed this week and completed in the next year or year and a half. All are under a municipal - provincial arrangement for financing. "One of the things of interest is that both county councils of Victoria and Haliburton have had committees working actively in consideration of reorganizing their county and municipal structure," said the MPP.

As an example he cited Travelways and the company's purchase of LaRue Bus Lines of Haliburton. Stamp Bus Lines of Minden and Algar Coach Lines of Lindsay to form one company. This will result in a change in the transportation system of the two counties and provide all services required.

It's had its problems, Mr. Hodgson said. There has been concern about the energy problem, particularly in Lindsay in respect to supply of plastic to industries.

He said that while some of the people in the recreation industry are concerned with uncertain supplies of gasoline affecting tourism, the MPP does not expect shortages to interfere greatly with the industry.

OLIVER JOHN BARNUM

Oliver John Barnum, late of Haliburton entered into rest Dec. 22, 1973 at his home.

Mr. Barnum was born in West Guilford and was the son of the late Henry Barnum and the late Elizabeth Henderson. He moved to Haliburton in 1944 where he lived with his family until his death. Oliver was employed at the International Cooperage for 21 years. In 1955 he started working at the D.H.O. and only retired in October of this year, due to ill health. Oliver was in his 61st year.

On August 9, 1940 he married Alice Horsley who survives him, as does his son Randy and daughters Betty (London, Ont.) and Linda Billings, also two grandchildren Kim and Sean.

Oliver is survived by 3 brothers: Harry (West Guilford), Clayton (Cobourg) Frank (Brampton) and 1 sister Alma (Lindsay). He was predeceased by one brother and two sisters.

Oliver was well known in the community as was indicated by the many floral tributes and kind donations of friends. For 25 years Oliver was and active member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 129. The Legion conducted their service on Sunday Dec.

23rd. at 8:30 p.m. with Capt. Wm. Waywell in charge.

The funeral service was held from John Welch and Son Funeral Home on Dec. 24, 10:30 a.m. with Rev. John Smith officiating. Interment was the vault at the Evergreen Cemetery, Haliburton until spring when Interment will be the Baptist Cemetery, West Guilford.

Pallbearers were six Legionnaires: Wilfred Crarey, Frank Roberts, Archie Morrison, Ray Harvie, Ted Isles, Allen Giles.

CLAUDE DEWAR FERGUSON

Claude Dewar Ferguson, (Fergie) passed away Dec. 1st-73 at the Minden Red Cross Hospital after a lengthy illness with Cancer.

He and his wife first became acquainted with Haliburton in 1944, and were constant visitors from then on.

In 1958 they purchased their present residence and each year worked on it to restore it to its present structure, and had permanently moved here in April of this year.

Fergie came of five generation Canadians whose forebears had found their way to our shores seeking a new life-from Scotland and Ireland. His early working days from 17 years of age, were spent mostly sailing the great lakes on merchant ships, and in the middles of the depression years became one of the organizers of the Canadian Seamen's Union, to help better the working conditions and wages for the seamen. In 1955 he joined the staff of A.N. Shaw and Sons Building Restoration as a Salesman, and in 1962 bought the business. In the mid 60's he formed the steeplejacks union in the Toronto Area. Prior to that time there was no such organization set up for these workers.

Very much concerned always with the welfare of his men, Mr. Ferguson last year sold the outstanding shares of the company and set up an $80,000.00 trust fund for 43 of his long time employees. Last year he paid more than $35,000.00 in bonuses, and profit sharing.

He said in an interview at that time that "My men have been with me a long time, they have worked very hard and have helped me earn my money, I feel they deserve a portion of it". Fergie, envisioned a better day ahead, with no more great depressions and no more Wars.

He was one of the original founders of the Highlands of Haliburton Art Group, which was organized for the purpose of encouraging wide community participation in the Arts and Crafts. His passing is not only a great loss to his wife Marge, brothers and sisters, but to society as a whole.

Warning to snowmobilers

The Ontario Provincial Police are concerned with the mounting number of injuries and fatalities that accompany the popular winter sport, snowmobiling.

In Ontario, during the 1972-73 winter season, fifty-two people lost their lives as a result of snowmobiling. Twenty-two drowned, twenty persons died when in collision with motor vehicles, and nine died as a result of colliding with fixed objects. Collision with a train took another life, and exposure was responsible for another.

The O.P.P. are constantly developing programmes and updating material to cope with and project to the public the latest available data to ensure their safety.

More than ninety O.P.P. safety officers throughout the province conduct regular clinics dealing with the safe operation and mechanical fitness of the vehicle.

Because of geographical variances, special emphasis are placed on problems encountered in different areas.

The extra precaution of telling someone where you are going and when you will return is also encouraged.

Last year, O.P.P. personal in Seventeen Districts, presented 746 snowmobile safety lectures to more than 41,800 students and adults.

Snowmobiles have many uses, for example, business, sport and pleasure.

Of these, it is operation of the pleasure machine which gives rise for the most concern. It can be the novice driver who without instruction, feels he can handle the machine if he can work the controls. Or, it can be the old story "familiarity breeds contempt", when experienced operators foresake common sense precautions.

Pic of the Past

There was many a story to be told from the council meetings and other events which were held in the old town Hall in Minden. Shown above is a picture of the building taken in the 1800's. The town Hall stood in the same location as the present Provisional County of Haliburton building which was erected in 1953.

THE BATHTUB

IS MY FAVOURITE

by Bill Smiley

Last week's column mentioned that unspeakable species, the readoholic. That reminded me of a speech I made about Good Reading Habits to a group of honour students. So I dug up the speech and propose this week to pass along some of the more worthwhile points in it.

It's not primarily for students, but if you're not interested, you can go and cry over your post-Christmas bills.

I became a readoholic shortly after I learned to read. My mother would moan, as she tore the flash-light out of my hot little hand about 2 a.m., "Billy Smiley, you'll be blind by the time you're fifteen if you don't stop reading in dark corners and cubby-holes."

Well, I've been reading in dark corners and bright ones, on planes and trains, in the bathroom and in bed, in revolving doors and on escalators, ever since, and I'm not blind yet. I don't even wear glasses.

But I don't want you to think I just ignored my mom's admonition. I have never since read in a cubby-hole. In fact, you can scarcely get your hands on a cubby-hole these days. They seem to have gone the way of spats and straw hats.

I had trouble with that speech to the kids. The principal had suggested the topic, Good Reading Habits, and who was I to tell him it was a dull and stupid topic?

When I sat down to write the speech, I could think of only one good reading habit. Many years ago, when I was in public school, they taught us in health classes that you should always read with the light coming over your left shoulder. I don't know why. They're still teaching it.

This good reading habit is rather useless if your left shoulder is higher than your right one, as is sometimes the case. And of course, if you are reading Hebrew or Persian, and read from right to left, it seems more logical to have the light coming over your right shoulder.

I had to admit to the students that this was the only good reading habit I could remember. That seemed to be the end of the speech. Then I thought, "Heck, this is no good." So I confessed that I could say, without pride, but with little fear of contradiction, that I had the most atrocious reading habits of any male in Canada.

I suggested that I talk instead about Bad Reading Habits. Then, if they listened carefully, and immediately afterward forgot everything I had said, they would be well on the way to acquiring Good Reading Habits. There was general agreement that this was a sensible approach.

I warned them of the depths of degradation to which a readoholic would descend to get his stuff. I told them that an alcoholic or a drug addict would stoop pretty low to get the wherewithal for his habit. And I told them this was kid stuff compared to what the readoholic would stoop to.

I gave them an example: a friend of mine during the war. He had the habit very badly. I lost track of him, but heard from friends that he had managed to kick it.

Then one day, a couple of months after the war, I met him in Alexandria, North Africa. He was a handsome Sikh, with a sky-blue turban and a curly, black beard. But right away, I knew from the red-rimmed eyes, the glazed look, that he was still hooked on reading.

He was leading an old lady by the hand. I asked him who she was and where they were going. He had the decency to look ashamed as he answered ambiguously, "Old friend Smilee, I am knowing what you theenk, but I got to get a book", before hurrying off.

I heard later that the aged lady was his mother, and he was on his way to the slave market. I understand he got $19 for her. Or, in readoholic terms, about twenty-two paperbacks.

Oh, I put the fear into those honour students. But then I tried to soften the blow. Told them of some of the great discoveries for which readoholism had been responsible.

Newton, reading under an apple tree. The old story is that he was sleeping, but the truth is that he had just picked up a copy of the recently published "Fanny Hill" and was definitely reading. Apple fell, hit him on the head, and we had the Law of Gravity, without which we'd be in very grave shape.

And there was the Greek, Archimedes. He climbed into the bath one day for a quiet read. Immediately he opened his book, he knew something was wrong. He leaped out of the tub, crying, "Paprika!" Somebody had put paprika instead of bath salts in his water. And thus was discovered Archimedes Principle, a very important law in the study of physics.

I don't know much about the Principle, but I think it's something like, "Half a bath is better than none."

This anecdote brought me toward my peroration. It reminded me that I knew of another Good Reading Habit. This made two. A good Reading Habit is to read in the bath-tub.

Someone once said that the ideal learning situation was a boy sitting on one end of a log, and Mark Van Doren, the great U.S. educator, sitting on the other.

My notion of the ideal learning situation would be a classroom with thirty-five bath-tubs instead of desks. And up at the front, a super-tub, preferably in pink mother-of-pearl, for Mr. Smiley.

It might be a little expensive, but think of the special effects we could get when teaching The Spanish Armada in history, or Old Man and the Sea, in English.

Perhaps I should add that we'd be wearing swim-suits.

Along The Trails

Compiled by Roy Bates

Trail Clearing along the Tri-Trail goes on. Work crews were out again this weekend, both Saturday and Sunday. All but a few short sections that are inaccessible except by lake ice are widened and ready for grooming. Poor ice condition is holding up that part of the operation.

I learned the other day that a broken bogie spring will drastically reduce traction in deep snow and in slush it makes a bad situation almost impossible. My comrades on that trail-breaking expedition were relieved when the broken part was replaced. Pat Hucal and Brian Hunter were getting a little tired of helping me over the hills and out of the bog. I also learned that a cattail marsh is no place to be without water-proof boots of at least knee height.

Which brings us up to the spare parts department. Recommended additions to your spare parts kit (besides spark plugs and drivebelt) are, bogie spring, starting cord, tow rope, dry socks and, if possible, dry felt liners for your snowmobile boots. Believe me, wet feet get awfully uncomfortable after a couple of hours.

It's disappointing not to be able to report all lakes sound and safe for snowmobiling. Some are but many are not. Most have only a few inches of good ice with a layer of slush covered by snow. The light snow that has fallen almost daily during the past week has insulated the ice below and prevented freezing. Small lakes and ponds in swampy areas are actually deteriorating with some air holes large enough to swallow a snowmobile.

Joe Blair has informed me that the Haliburton village by-pass has been completed from Head Lake to Outlet Bay on Drag Lake. Joe, and his three member work party, spent this weekend finishing the project started two weeks ago. Other work parties were out in the Minden and Hall's Lake areas.

The Donald Windigos have opened their popular Double O trail and expect to begin grooming it this week.

The Donald Windigos Snowmobile Club is promising a change of scenery and groomed trails for the Haliburton Winter Carnival Safari which the club will sponsor again this year. And this club intends to hold up its end in trail improvement. It has volunteered a grooming team for the Tri-Trail project. It is also the first club to renew membership in the HCSA for 1974. Where ARE the others?

While the Association is concentrating its efforts, at the moment, on the Tri-Trail project the rest of the County is not forgotten. I recently gave the "Mogul Mover" its first trail test and it works. I took it over the roughest, steepest, and crookedest trail I could find and found that it towed quite nicely behind an Elan. Except when it hooked onto a stump! It had the humps right down to the bare ground. This drag is available to any person willing to provide pulling power for it on any trail in the County system. If the demand is great enough we'll have more made. Every snowmobile club should have one of its own.

A CORRECTION. Two weeks ago I reported on trail cutting at Wahoo Lake and referred to that water also as Harburn Lake. I was in error. Wahoo is on Harburn Creek. The trail does not touch Harburn Lake.

The Christmas week mild spell, while it spoiled the snowmobiling fun of many, may actually have been a life saver. It kept people off unsafe ice. When the slush freezes we'll have excellent ice conditions for the rest of the winter.

Hall's Lake News

Garth Mole and his lovely bride, the former Miss Wanda Skinner, spent New Years with Mr. & Mrs. William Mole. Mrs. Mole is recuperating after spending some time in St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough.

Mr. & Mrs. William Gartshore celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary in October with a host of friends from far and near coming to share this happy occasion with this popular couple.

The sympathy of the community went out to Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Hunt to the holiday season in the passing of Mr. Hunt's mother in Toronto, and also to Mrs. Dewar Ferguson whose Husband affectionately known as "Fergy" passed away shortly after their retirement to Hall's Lake. He was a great booster for Haliburton County and a valued member of Club 35. They had purchased the old Davie's homestead on the Hawk River and completely remodelled it, making it both attractive and comfortable for retirement.

Mrs. Elsie Bursey had her friend Miss Ella Forsyth from Toronto as her holiday guest and entertained the Rawlins and the Stinsons and Mr. George Holliday on New Year's Day. The Rawlins had their son and his girl friend, the Stinsons, Mrs. Bursey, Miss Forsyth for Christmas. Lil Rawlin's sister, Miss May Spence and Mrs. Nisbitt of Toronto also joined the New Year's dinner party at Mrs. Bursey's.

Mr. Albert Hart Left Malton Airport on December 11th to spend a happy holiday season with his daughter Mrs. June Murray in Edmonton. He reports a wonderful flight and landed in 8 below temperature.

The Jennings of "Sandy Lane Resort" had several city families in their cottages over the holidays. They skated on the lake and certainly enjoyed their many snowmobile safaris up in the Hawk Lakes.

Mrs. Ferguson had friends

THE HALIBURTON ECHO

The Dewhursts of Toronto, visiting with her.

Mrs. Helen Brown has her sister, Mrs. Lewis Jarvis, of Mississauga staying with her for a few weeks.

Stanhope councillors and their wives and friends held a Christmas party at Club 35 in December. Music was provided by Mr. Ron. Bacon with Sinc. Nesbitt calling for square dancing. A sit-down supper was catered to by Len & Doreen Stinson.

Good wishes are extended to Mr. Pete Sawyer who has been on the sick list, also to Mrs. Louise Watson who has been not too well lately, Mr. Larry Wheeler back on Kushop Lake who is in Lindsay Hospital this week end and Mrs. Wheeler who goes into a Toronto Hospital.

Mr. & Mrs. Don York of Oakville were guests of Mrs. Helen Brown over the Christmas holiday.

Miss Bonnie Stinson was home for the holidays, having completed her fifth semester at Mohawk College in Hamilton. she will be moving to Mount Forest in January to commence work at the Mount Forest Confederate as Advertising Manager.

The Montgomery Family and their relatives arriver for Christmas at their cottages and enjoyed the snow. The gardners, the Greens and the Attridges and all their children arrived so there were many brith lights around the Lake.

Loralea Lodge was well filled with guests over the holiday period. City people certainly like to get up to these clean-air, white-snow quiet spots for a winter break. Many families say they are coming back for the school break in March in the snow continues.

Happy New Year to one and all.

In Memoriam

NEWELL-In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Victoria Newell who passed away January 13, 1972.

We watched you suffer day by day, And could not help in any way.

But just stood by and saw you pass Into the Saviour's arms at last.

In the book of life there are memories Of the happy days we knew. And recorded in love are the blessings

Of a wonderful Mother like you.

Lovingly remembered always - Mike, Yvonne, Kevin, Cherlin and Glenda.

PASQUINO-In loving memory of a dear husband and father Samuel, who passed away December 27, 1972.

Although we smile and make no fuss, No one misses him more than us.

And when old times we oft recall,

That's when we miss him most of all.

Always remembered by wife, three sons and four daughters.

News from Gooderham

Reading Nila Reynolds book "Quest of Yesterday" has been very stimulating. One must admire the industry and persistence required to gather all that information together. If the memory of others is stirred up as much as my own there should be many stories that will surface. Maybe some of these will be sent in to the Echo. Even part of our vocabulary which was commonly used not so long ago has almost disappeared. Sometime ago I used the word "canthook" and my wife and daughter wanted to know what it meant. Before I had finished explaining I had to draw a diagram to show how it was used. In this area everyone knows what kind of tool I referred to. Of course I was reminded that my wife was born in Montreal and my daughter in Toronto. Fortunately I was born and grew up in a village on the Georgian Bay near the mouth of the Beaver River and I heard about the ploughshare, the colter and the mouldboard - all parts of a horse drawn plough. I even had some sore ribs from the handles of a plough when a big stone cropped up and the horses didn't stop soon enough, the plough never got stuck as tight as Mrs. Reynolds tells about in her book, where the oxen had to be unhitched and tied to the handles of the plough to drag it back and free it. Of course this more likely to happen when the ploughshare is snagged under the roots of a tree.

A horseman would recognize words like surcingle, curb bit, overdraw check or crupper, but how many others would have a clue as to their meaning. These were common words when the the best and most stylish means of conveyance was a carefully painted bugged and a fast steppin driver. there is a thrill in driving a well-tuned, well appointed automobile with 300 or 400 horses under the hood but it can never equal the excitement and pleasure of driving a well-matched span of horses in a buggy.

LOSE A POUND A DAY AND MORE

New Vitamin "E" Plus "C" Diet Gives Fast Weight Loss

LOS ANGELES (Special) — New scientific discoveries have now produced a Vitamin E Plus "C" diet that quickly works wonders on overweight people, and reportedly is gaining great popularity across the country with glowing reports of easy weight loss "while still eating almost as much as you want."

Those who follow the simple Vitamin E diet report an average loss of at least a pound a day and even more without exercise or starvation. Nutritionists files are bulging with happy testimonials from formerly overweight people who are now trim and slim again. Best of all, you can still eat almost as much as you want of the "forbidden foods" like steak, chicken, fish, sauces, gravies, bacon and eggs and still lose weight.

Very Hi-Potency vitamin "E" Plus "C" tablets, as used in the diet plan, contain a new scientific combination of ingredients that quickly curbs and controls the appetite, while also giving the wondrous benefits of Vitamin E which is so essential to good health.

The use of the new Vitamin "E" Plus "C" Diet tablets and foods prescribed in the plan will, through natural action, act to help your body use up excess fat. According to recent clinical tests, a person who is deficient in Vitamin E or Protein "will double the speed of fat utilization" with the use of Vitamin "E" Plus "C".

"E" + "C" DIET AVAILABLE

To get a copy of this highly successful diet and "E" Plus "C" Tablets, send $5.00 for 10 day supply (or $7.00 for 20 day supply or $10.00 for 30 day supply) to: "Diet" 309, N. Kings Rd., Los Angeles, CA 90048 money-back guarantee if not satisfied). In Calif. add 5% tax.
